the hands of local trustees to a county board of education.

Favored by Teachers.

The subject was given consideration at the gathering of teachers held in at the gathering of teachers held in Sait Lake City a week ago yesterday, and by the county superintendents, who unanimously passed a resolution to support the movement. The same sentiment pervaded the teachers' gathering. Since that time the subject has been constantly agitated and an endeavor made to convince parents of school children of the necessity of demanding the change.

It is claimed in favor of the plan is such a school it is necessary that all the districts should favor it. Under the proposed system the majority of the people of the county without relation to locality, can, b

School Districts Uneven.

At present the various counties are divided into school districts. How the districts were formed is not generally known, but no attention has been paid to natural geographical divisions or to equitable division from the standpoint of population. Examples of the result-art conditions are pointed out by friends of the reorganization scheme in Salt Lake county where there are thir-ty-six school districts, 7.884 pupils and of Salt Lake City. The largest district in point of pupils attending school is Farmer's. There $11 children receive instruction in the district schools. The smallest is North Point, with twentysix school children. These thirty-six districts have a uniform governing board of trustees of three each, regardboard of trustees of three each, regard-less of size or population, resulting in a county board of education consisting of 108 members, almost as a county board of the public in-stallation of officers, Monday evening. of 108 members—almost as many as the Jan. 13. mber of teachers employed.

While these trustees are not granted salaries by law, it is assumed that they will receive an allowance. Last year $2,754.50 was paid out for their ser-$2,754.50 was paid out for their services. Some contributed their services free, while the highest amount paid any member was $75. With such a large, unwieldy body it is not possible to meet more than twice a year to discuss school affairs and no executive work is possible, as it is simply a suggestive body. There is no continuity of thoughf or action, it is urged, because the first the results of the first the results of the first tribe is also in a flourishing condition. The past term has been a successful one for the order in the Junction City, many adoptions taking place and the finances being in a prosperous condition.

the affairs of-each of the thirty-six districts fimily revert to the trustees acting as an independent unit. Where the strustees feel the district can afford it and they are so inclined, good teachers are employed and the schools are kept open for a long term. Where the situation is different cheap teachers are employed and a short term is held.

Ashton Approves New Plan.

"The establishment of a county system such as is employed in other stees would open the way for a high-class, fairly well paid board of, say, nine members," said County Superintendent Ashton last evening, when asked concerning the situation. "It is contemplated to have this board elected as the present trustees are. They in turn would name the county superintendent. The Vossiche Zeitung already warns the public against a too optimistic view of the iron situation, which, it says, is still very bad. The bourse reports, however, indicate that outsiders have been speculativ buying in iron and coal shares. Yesterday all the industrials were in strong demand, and many advanced ten points during the week. These latter include iron and coal shares.

Copper continues to be an unsolved question. In spite of the talk of a question. In spite of the talk of a further drop, it is apparent that substantial interests here have sufficient money and faith to buy liberally on every decline so a serious break is not likely, unless there are unexpected developments in the United States.

Both in Germany and in France the outlook for the new year is more hopeful. There is considerable money in Paris awaiting only some encouraging lead to seek investment.
